DAILY PACIFIC NEWS.

THE FEE BILL.—The "Act to regulate the Fees of Office," passed by the Legislature on the 18th April, will be published in a neat pamphlet form, and for sale at this office, at ten o'clock this morning.

The Issue Before the People.

In our paper of this morning will be found the full nominations of both political parties for Charter officers. The very late hour of receiving the list of democratic nominees, precludes us from making any extended remarks in regard to them individually; but we shall accord to the ticket a hearty and undivided support, believing it to be composed of good and true men, who will, if elected, devote all their energies to the promotion of the best interests of San Francisco.

The affairs of this city have been unwisely administered heretofore, in many particulars, and the consequence are seen in an impoverished treasury and an almost universal feeling of distrust on the part of the citizens. There is a general reform needed in all departments of the municipal government, and this reform will be carried out by a democratic Council, composed of men who are known for their honesty and integrity, as well as unflinching devotion to the public welfare.

We shall have more to say in regard to our ticket to-morrow: meantime we urge upon every member of the democratic party to bury in oblivion all past dissensions, and come up in solid phalanx to the work before us—giving to it for the three intervening days before the election that vigilance and efficient action which cannot fail to secure a most triumphant result.

The Whigs have nominated a strong ticket. Their best men are in the field—men against whom nothing can be said, except that they represent a party, the supremacy of whose principles and measures in the Councils of the Nation and State, we deem adverse to the spirit of democratic progress, the development of which has contributed so much to the advancement and glory of the American people.

If, therefore, we would be successful in the coming contest, we must be united as one man, and go for the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket. We can elect it by a thousand majority, if we try:—THEN LET US DO IT.

Items from late Mexican Papers.

The inhabitants of Alvarado (near Vera Cruz) are complaining that the government did not yet order those obstructions to be removed, which Mexican soldiers made at the bar of Alvarado when the Americans were blockading said port during the last war. Various vessels have been wrecked lately at this port.

The late Governor of Queretaro, Fernandez de Jauregua, has been brought to the city of Mexico to defend himself against the accusation made by the Legislature, for his unconstitutional acts.

The reports from all the Mexican States are full of atrocities committed by robbers, who have been only detected in the State of Jalasco, where new and severe laws had been lately passed. Still greater atrocities have been committed by the Indians in the northern States, and even a convoy of American government stores was attacked and some teamsters killed.

The pacification of Yucatan was steadily increasing, as the Indians have been defeated in several encounters, and if it was not for the assistance they get from the English colony of Balize, this war would have been concluded long since. General Micheltorrena is commanding the Mexican troops in that quarter.

The Authorities of the State and United States.

The meeting last night for the consideration of the peculiar situation of California, was large and enthusiastic. After the usual organization, to accommodate all who wished to participate in the deliberations, a motion was made and carried to adjourn to the Public Square. A committee of seven was then appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of this community upon the subject which called the meeting together, at an adjourned meeting to be held to-morrow night.

With the general sentiment expressed by the speeches we cordially agree. Of the necessity which will compel us to assert and maintain our sovereignty as a State, should the present Congress refuse to admit us into the Union, this journal has already spoken. Its position cannot be mistaken. California is a State, and as such we respect its authority, and shall defend its existence. But we saw no occasion to travel out of the record of the "call" under which the assembly convened, to attack officers of the General Government—to stigmatize them as blood suckers who were becoming sleek and fat upon public pap, when every body knows that the pay of a public officer is no pay at all in California.—Such remarks were not only ill-timed, but unjust to the officers of the General Government.

As to the subject of collison between the Federal and State authorities, the explanation of the Collector, so far as it was permitted to be made, was full and satisfactory. If there are other facts not yet known to the public, let them be disclosed. The officers of the Federal Government are bound to execute the laws under which they act, and until the action of the Congress at Washington shall compel us in self-defence to abjure its authority, they must be regarded as a part of our government, and entitled to our respect. Whenever they exceed their powers, let them be held to a strict and rigid accountability.

The report of the committee to-morrow night, is looked for with deep interest. It will go to Washington by the next steamer, as the exponent of the sentiments of California. We doubt not it will be such, embracing fully the points upon which we desire to be heard by Congress. and none other.

FROM SACRAMENTO.—The steamer Senator arrived from Sacramento at a late hour last evening. She was detained several hours behind her usual time by getting aground. She attempted to come down the main channel, instead of the slough, the regular route; and after getting along some distance, she found the Hartford hard aground, where she had been lying since Monday last. In attempting to relieve this boat, she also was grounded, but succeeded in getting off, as well as relieving the Hartford.

There was no particular news at Sacramento. The water had receded so as to cause all alarm at present to subside. Mr. Bigelow, the worthy mayor of our sister city, came down on the Senator the present trip.

At four o'clock this afternoon, the Senator again leaves for Sacramento City.

To the Editor of the Pacific News:

Finding myself severely commented upon in a communication which appeared in yesterday's paper, I beg through the medium of the same journal to observe that there appears to have been considerable misapprehension as to the spirit in which that report was written.

In the first place, it was merely the embodying of the private notes made by me during the voyage for the information of the parties whose representative I happened to be, and without any object to ulterior publication. I felt it to be my duty to assign reasons why I did not remain in Trinidad bay as I might have done, and also why I advocated an attempt to beat out from Mendicino bay during a northeast wind, on the practicability of which its importance as a location mainly depended. My object, therefore, was to animate enterprise and elicit facts and not to prejudice any party, much less that of Mr. Robert A. Parker, whose hospitable reception of us and a generous offer of half the location of his town, merit our sincere thanks, and if we did not accept the latter, it was because we considered that in so doing we could not serve our own interests nor those of the parties that we represented. As to the beautiful and graphic description of Trinidad "bay," attributed to me, it was merely the substance of notes made in Mr. Parker's log cabin, and furnished by the persons around me, and I am most willing to yield the merit of them to those from whom I obtained them.

I must therefore decline following up at present any further argument based upon an invidious comparison of the respective merits of either place. In my report made to the company it was necessary to vindicate the justice of our views in not accepting the liberal offer made us by Mr. Parker's company, but now it would be out of place, and resolve itself into a gratuitous attack on private interests; besides, a very few weeks will suffice to put the question beyond the possibility of cavil.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. POETT.

Agricultural Resources of California.

The adaptation of our State to the purposes of agriculture, is but indifferently understood here among ourselves, while there is much actual misrepresentation abroad in the east upon the subject. Under these circumstances we are glad to avail ourselves of every possible facility to place this interest before the country in its true light, and invite communications upon the subject. The truth of the following one can be attested by any person who has travelled from this city to San Jose.

PUEBLO DE SAN JOSE, April 19, '50.

MR. EDITOR—Believing that you take an interest in the welfare of the country and wishing to impart the same feeling to all who may arrive on these shores, I fancy it may subserve your purpose to publish all reliable information that pertains to a proper understanding of the resources of this our adopted State.—Thus persuaded, I address you on the subject of the valley of San Jose, in order that, through you, the hundreds who are daily arriving in the country may not be ignorant of the fact that California is not to be judged by the first impressions received either at San Francisco or Sacramento.

The valley of San Jose, lying,—viewing it from San Francisco,—in a southeastern direction at the head of the bay of that name, is indisputably among the finest in the country. It stretches for about seventy miles, and its breadth from east to west averages about twenty.—Two ridges of mountains, extending from opposite sides of the bay and gradually narrowing towards each other, enclose it, forming a basin studded with woods, and furrowed by many a brook hurrying to empty itself into the bay. The tall, majestic red-wood with which the western ridge is bristling, stands in its solemnity as if the guardian of the vale below, while innumerable birds of bright and variagated plumage warble and sport among the flowers and groves of oak that seem part and parcel of the valley.

At the head of the bay of San Francisco, and at the distance of about eight miles from the point of landing, is the town of San Jose, for the present the capital of the State. It is growing rapidly, and yet slowly enough to render all its progress permanent. Its situation is delightful, to be convinced of which, one need only to visit it now, when Nature is putting forth all her attractions. The roads are becoming excellent, so that access hither is in no way impeded. Stage-coaches hurry over the distance of fifty-one miles to your city in six hours, putting it within the power of every citizen of San Francisco to make a pleasant excursion to our town, where they can be housed and lodged as if in some old substantial New England village. The population must be from four to five thousand. It is destined to be the first inland town in California, where inprovements will go on without feverish excitement, but steadily, surely, and always onward. Its healthy and mild climate, its inexhaustibly rich soil, its beautiful landscape and abundant space for a large population will draw, probably, the largest and best portion of immigrants to this country. There is hardly a production that cannot be raised in this soil when knowledge takes advantage of circumstances peculiar to its climate, seasons, and topographic position. He who intends to settle permanently in the country cannot entertain the slightest doubt of success in the valley of San Jose, if he only trusts his labor to the all-bountiful Nature. He will know how to take advantage of the mildness of winter as well as how to temper the parching heats of August, by causing springs to flow from the bosom of the earth. This can easily be effected, as water can be found at almost any point in the valley within eight feet of the surface, and often in much less.

The soil being a deep deposit of vegetable mould with water near the surface that is nightly bathed in a heavy dew, removes the difficulty of accounting for the wonderful fertility of the valley; and the fact that corn, wheat, and potatoes grow luxuriantly in the plains, ceases to be an impossibility even to those whose ideas upon agriculture have been fashioned in other climates.

Time, doubtless, will plant here every kind of industry, but for the present, farming is the most important and attractive branch, and we are glad to be able to announce that numbers have actually commenced the business; so that the inhabitants of San Francisco may expect, this season, to be able to enjoy the fruits of the earth, grown upon our own shores.

Vine-growing, next to farming, will probably be undertaken; and to this the slopes of the neighboring hills are admirably adapted. There is little doubt that ere long the hills which are now covered to the very top with wild oats and a profusion of flowers, will give room to the delicious grape. Beside the vine-grower, probably the shepherd will not be the last to claim a portion of these hills for the benefit of his flock. It requires only the right sort of men to raise an excellent quality of sheep.

The mineral wealth accumulated by nature in this neighborhood, cannot fail in lending its influence to advance the interests both of the valley and town. The quicksilver mines which are being worked, will grow daily in importance for the trade of the country, as well as this particular locality. There are mines of silver also, the value of which time will shortly determine. And by a recent undeniable discovery of traces of gold in the stream running by the town, we are able to state with certainty that we are in the neighborhood of the gold-bearing region; nor will it be long before miners will crowd to the south of the San Joaquin. In that case, San Jose will be for the mining business, what the city of Sacramento is now.

But apart from all these real or supposed advantages, the town is situated on the high way of inland commerce between the northern and southern portions of the state, which fact will confer on it under any circumstances, peculiar advantages.

Such is the place to which we have thought proper to call the attention of those emigrants whose object may be to settle permanently in the country.

Joint resolutions from the Assembly, were taken up, in the words following, viz:

Resolved, (the Senate concurring,) That, as citizens of the United States, we have been pained to learn that the safety, peace and prosperity of our common country are endangered by the discussion of abstract questions, which we believe unnecessary to agitate, and which appear to be forced onward only for unholy, unpatriotic and partisan purposes.

Be it further Resolved, That the government of the United States is a government of limited powers, and that by the Constitution, Congress has no jurisdiction whatever over the subject of slavery in the several States of the Union.

Be it further Resolved, That any attempt by Congress to interfere with the institution of slavery in any of the Territories of the United States, would create just grounds of alarm in many of the States of the Union, and that such interference is unnecessary, inexpedient and in violation of good faith: since, when any such Territory applies for admission into the Union as a State, the people thereof alone have the right, and should be left free and untrammeled to decide such questions for themselves.

Be it further Resolved, That we request the Governor of this State to transmit a certified copy of these Joint Resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, as instructions to our Senators, and as guides to our Representatives relative to their action upon the subject matter of these resolutions.

Mr. Woodworth moved their indefinite postponement. Lost.

Mr. Broderick moved to amend the resolutions by inserting the following additional resolution:

Resolved, That opposition to the admission of a State into the Union with a Constitution prohibiting slavery on account of such prohibition is a policy wholly unjustifiable and unstatesmanlike, and in violation of that spirit of concession and compromise by which alone the Federal Constitution was adopted, and by which alone it can be perpetuated.

The Late Suicide of J. E. Stickney.

BOSTON, February 18.

A CARD.—To the Public.—As many causes have been assigned for the death of our late friend and partner, J. E. Stickney, we have deemed it a matter of duty to correct any false impressions which may prevail in regard to the melancholy event. We learn by careful enquiry that there has been a marked and fatal pre-disposition to insanity in Mr. Stickney's family for a period of the last 40 years; to such an extent did this fearful pre-disposition prevail that his grandfather and father were its victims, and a brother of his, it is said committed the same rash act. This unhappy family tendency we believe to be the true predisposing cause of the tragedy.

A gentleman acquainted with the family for a great number of years, predicted the catastrophe. Upon learning the fact of Mr. Stickney's death, he assured us that he was not surprised to hear of the calamity, knowing the pre disposition of the family.

In his California operations, Mr. Stickney was successful. He conducted our business in a faithful and praiseworthy manner, and left it in just such a situation as any business man would have done; during his stay in California his health was quite poor, and he suffered considerably from the prevailing complaints of the latitude. He was very anxious to return to rejoin his wife, and was heard to say that he would not stay a year longer without her, for all the gold in the country. He was very happy in his domestic relations, and every thing seemed to promise a long life of happiness and peace.

Mr. Stickney was a quiet and even tempered person, and not subject to sudden or violent outbursts of anger—a firm friend and an honest man.

In conclusion, we would say that the care, responsibility and excitement consequent upon his California operations, together with bodily indisposition, and more than all, the unfortunate family tendency to insanity, drove him to the commission of the act which put an end to his existence. He leaves a young and amiable wife and a large circle of friends and well-wishers.

DISTRICT COURT.—Burgoyne et al. vs. the Ayuntamiento.—On yesterday morning Judge Parsons gave his decision on the demurrer filed by the defendants.—The Court sustained the bill of complaint so far as it prays to restrain the sale of city lots, overrules the demurrer, with leave to the defendants to answer in ten days.

MERCHANTS' HOTEL.—Of the many public houses to be found in San Francisco, few will compare in point of comfort with the Merchants' Hotel, at present conducted under the able management of Messrs. Dearborn and Sherman, who spare neither expense nor trouble in their efforts to insure the comfort of their guests. The table is all that an epicure could wish; the attendants are brisk and anticipate one's wants, and what is a great desideratum, the house is quiet, free from broils or rowdyism, and in the company of gentlemen, always to be met there, one feels himself perfectly at home. Call, then, and patronize the Merchants' Hotel, situated between Clay and Sacramento streets, above Montgomery street, and you will find everything right, as did the DIGGER.

SOMETHING NICE.—A young grizzly bear, fat and tender, was brought into the city yesterday by some hunters fro the mountains, and a portion of h bearship will be served up this day steaks and chops at the City Restaurant, by Mr. Glassen, the attentive proprietor.

By the late rains the earth has be washed away to such an extent in Potte Field, New York, as to uncover about fi coffins.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20, 1850.

Messrs. Editors: Gentlemen—We are sorry to observe in your journal of this morning, a statement relative to the finances of the city, which reflects unfavorably upon us as public officers. We the more regret this communication for the reason that our duties confine us to a narrow sphere, and do not permit our partaking, or meddling with the proceedings of the Ayuntamiento, or common council.

The discrepancy assumed to have existed between our several accounts, as published in the Alcalde's pamphlet, is accounted for by the absence of the first Treasurer's fiscal statement at the time he left office, and was probably deemed unnecessary, as no account is kept with the Treasurer individually, but with the Treasury.

Presuming that the Alcalde will also reply to the statement first alluded to above, we will, for the satisfaction of your correspondent, as well as the public generally, only further beg reference to the accompanying recapitulation of the Comptroller's first account, while we are, very respectfully, your obedient servants,

INDEPENDENT NOMINATIONS.

Whereas, it being all important to the interests of the city of San Francisco, at its first municipal organization, under the charter recently adopted by the Legislature, that peace, harmony and good order should prevail among all its inhabitants, and that all interests should be guarded alike, without reference to geographical locality, or political complexion: And, whereas, the present aspect at home, in our American Congress, with reference to our admission as a State, with our present constitution, is, at least, doubtful, because political parties, as they are now organised, look more to the interest of party aggrandisement and party questions than the good and welfare of the citizens of California: And, whereas, self-preservation being the first law of nature, in delegating power, for our own protection, which is as yet denied us from those who are bound to protect us. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will support men for the several offices, under our city charter, who are honest, capable and true, whether they be Whig or Democrat; and we call upon all men, without distinction of party, who have an interest, whether moral, social or financial, to unite with us in the following ticket, believing they are all men well qualified and strictly honest, who will, if elected, look well to the interest of the city, and of its inhabitants.

The Governor shall appoint a Collector of licenses to foreign miners for each of the mining counties, and for the county of San Francisco, who, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take the oath required by the Constitution, and shall give his bond to the State with at least two good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties, which bond shall be approved by the Governor and filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

Sec. 3. Each Collector of licenses to foreign miners shall be commissioned by the Governor.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller to cause to be printed or engraved a sufficient number of licenses, which shall be numbered consecutively, and shall be in form following, to wit:

Sec. 7. If any such foreigner or foreigners shall refuse or neglect to take out such license by the second Monday of May next, it shall be the duty of the Collector of licenses to foreign miners of the county in which such foreigner or foreigners shall be, to furnish his or their names to the Sheriff of the county, or to any Deputy Sheriff, whose duty it shall be to summon a posse of American citizens, and, if necessary, forcibly prevent him or them from continuing such mining operations.

Sec. 8. Should such foreigner or foreigners, after having been stopped by a Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff from mining in one place, seek a new location and continue such mining operations, it shall be deemed a misdemeanor, for which such offender or offenders shall be arrested as for a misdemeanor, and he or they shall be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months, and fined not more than one thousand dollars.

Sec. 9. Any foreigner who may obtain a license in conformity with the provisions of this Act, shall be allowed to work the mines anywhere in this State, under the same regulations as citizens of the United States.

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of each Collector of licenses to foreign miners to keep a full and complete register of the names and description of all foreigners taking out licenses, and a synopsis of all such licenses, to be returned to the Treasurer.

Sec. 11. Each license, when sold, shall be endorsed by the Collector selling or issuing the same, and shall be in no case transferable; and the Collector may retain out of the money received for each licese, the sum of three dollars, which shall be the full amount of his compensation.

Sec. 12. Each Collector of licenses to foreign miners shall, once in every two months, and oftener, if called upon by the Treasurer, proceed to the seat of government, settle with the Treasurer, pay over to that officer all moneys collected from foreigners not before paid over, and account with him for the unsold licenses remaining in his hands.

Sec. 13. If any Collector shall neglect or refuse to perform his duty as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller, upon receiving a notice thereof from the Treasurer, to give information thereof to the District Attorney in whose district said officer may have been appointed, who shall bring an action against such Collector and his sureties upon his bond, before any court of competent jurisdiction; and upon recovery had thereon, the said District Attorney shall receive for his services ten per cent. upon the amount collected, the balance to be paid by him into the treasury in the manner provided by law for like payments.

Sec. 14. It shall be the duty of the Governor, so soon as he shall have been officially informed of the passage of a law by the United States Congress, assuming the control of the mines of the State, to issue his proclamation, requiring all Collectors of licenses to foreign miners to stop the issuing of licenses.

Sec. 15. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, immediately after the passage of this Act, to have two thousand copies each, in English and Spanish, printed and sent to the mining districts for circulation among the miners, and also to have the same published for thirty days in the Pacific News at san Francisco, and in some newspaper at Sacramento City and at Stockton.
